FROM: Luke Skaflen, Business Support Specialist – Administration

SUBJECT: AirCam National Helicopter Services, Inc. – Reapplication under Minimum Standards

RECOMMENDATION: Motion to approve the reapplication from AirCam National Helicopter Services, Inc., and authorize the Chair and Clerk to sign the associated Agreement Under Standards (AUS).

BACKGROUND: The current operating authority of AirCam National Helicopter Services Inc. (the "Applicant") expires on 12/5/2020. The Applicant has submitted a reapplication on 8/31/2020 under the airport's Minimum Standards to continue its authorization to conduct Helicopter Air Charter activities as defined under Part 3, Section (5) of the Minimum Standards.

The applicant has been conducting its operations at Centennial Airport for the past 30 years and has a fleet of two helicopters.

James Dirker is the president and Dale House is the Chief Pilot.

Applicant operates its offices Monday through Friday 8am to 5pm. and is available on call 24/7 from its facilities at 12951 E. Control Tower Rd. Applicant maintains office and hangar space through Mr. Dirker's company APAH, LLC d/b/a the Heliplex, which has a helicopter FBO ground lease with the Authority.

Applicant has provided insurance that is bound within satisfactory levels.

This reapplication is satisfactory and meets all the requirements of the Minimum Standards. As there are no changes its in scope of business, a public hearing is not required. A copy of the AUS is attached for your review (Exhibit II).

FINANCIAL DATA: One time re-application Fee $100 and Annual Aircraft Fee $500
